Train via Kodagu SCRAPPED

Railway Minister Piyush Goyal to make official announcement in Parliament tomorrow

New Delhi/Mysuru, Mar. 6 (BCT)- The controversial Railway Line between Thalassery in Kerala to Mysuru via South Kodagu has been scrapped. An official announcement in this regard will be made in the Parliament tomorrow by Railway Minister Piyush Goyal.

The Union Government will not take up any project that is harmful to the environment and the Thalassery-Mysuru project is one such plan where lakhs of trees will be cut in Kodagu, destroying the eco-sensitive district, said Piyush Goyal last evening. He was meeting a delegation from Kodagu led by K.M. Chinnappa, a forest officer (now retired) known for his conservation activities.

The Minister told the delegation that he understands the gravity of the situation and has studied the environmental impact. "We will not take up the project," the Minister assured the delegation.

Timber lobby wanted train

As many had feared, it was indeed the timber lobby in Kerala and some vested interest in Karnataka who were pushing for this railway line. This was mentioned by the Union Railway Minister himself to the delegation from Kodagu when they met him yesterday.

Speaking to Star of Mysore over phone regarding his meeting with Piyush Goyal, Thamoo Poovaiah of Kodagu Ekikarana Ranga, who was a part of the delegation, he said that the Minister told them that there was a timber lobby in Kerala that was pushing the project. Even some influential politicians in Karnataka and Kerala were in favour of the project.

Three sandalwood trees chopped at Kukkarahalli Lake

Mysuru, Mar. 6 (MTY&BCT)- Two sandalwood trees were chopped off and one tree was left with most of its trunk cut by smugglers late last night at Kukkarahalli Lake. The smugglers used battery-powered wood cutters to cut the trees. However, they abandoned the booty as they could not chop the trunk into small pieces that can be carried.

The incident took place in the lake area that comes in front of Jaladarshini Guest House near Kalamandira. The trees were located a few metres from the 'Walkers Bay' at the lake. Some morning-walkers spotted the chopped off trees and alerted DCF (Wildlife) Yedukondalu who formed a team to investigate.

Jayalakshmipuram Police who visited the spot along with Forest officers told SOM that the trees were healthy and had considerable amount of the scented wood. "Criminals would have entered the lake via Kalamandira side. Usually they chop trees in one night and carry them the next night after extracting the sandalwood," they said.

The University of Mysore that is the custodian of the lake has posted security at the gates. However, the security men neither saw smugglers entering the lake nor heard any sound of the wood being cut.

The team searched the nearby areas for weapons and other clues but in vain. It may be recalled here that six months back too, one sandalwood tree was cut from the lake premises.

Hinkal villagers stage protest to save Kalyani

Mysuru, 6 (PM&NNN)- The villagers of Hinkal staged a protest and stopped traffic for about 15 minutes at the Hinkal Ring Road Junction demanding handing over the land near the centuries-old Kalyani (water pond) to them, here this morning.

Later, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Chairman D. Dhruvakumar assured the villagers that a decision would be taken at its meeting on Mar.13 following which the villagers withdrew the protest.

Nation's neo-netas

Leading lights in society of the past, both near and far on time scale, are more to be found in the sleepy pages of the land's recorded history than remembered by present generation. Even the few among them whose life and exemplary deeds are recalled by some public speakers would have got erased from memory but for the various occasions celebrated with or without solemnity and clearly for self-glorification of the respective speakers, invariably the flock of neo-netas across the country, including Karnataka. The common outlook of treating the land's epics as more fiction nowadays has further hurt the cause of impressing upon the young minds the importance of universally accepted good habits that have acquired a low premium in our times. There is hardly any village across the country which has not hosted individuals, both men and women, of eminence in different fields of human activity, including teachers, warriors, singers, writers, philosophers, mentors and so on.

While the quality and content of education at all levels in the country, barring exception of some institutions, have been bestowed low rating in knowledgeable circles, we hear from many achievers in different fields about their rural origins and learning through the medium of regional languages as opposed to English. Even the non-achievers who have surged politically take fascination to identify themselves as sons of the soil.

The top brass in both the Union Government and Karnataka Government have just got into top gear in (a) hurling accusations of misdeeds (b) claims to working for raising the levels of prosperity in their respective jurisdictions (c) downgrading the track record of their political rivals (d) loading their public speeches with slogans and figures leaving the electorate on the high horns of dilemma in the matter of which political party to be favoured in the ensuing polls, and last but not the least (e) to score high on popularity scale. With the media extending its unalloyed hospitality through column-space in dailies of all hues and telecast time of television channels, there is a dramatic rise in the number of netas creating a scenario of big fish swallowing the sundries, with the gullible electorate offering a helping hand.

In the current dispensation, the dominant players seem to have forsaken the diktat of 'doing the right things and doing them rightly' while the land's masses have no clue on stopping the emergence of neo-netas in every region of the nation.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The Confederation of All India Traders has been serially angry. After complaining against a condom manufacturer for advertising its products during Shivaratri, the traders' body has taken it upon itself to prevail upon the Ministry of information and Broadcasting to set up a code of conduct for the media. It has alleged that television channels have repeatedly aired imaginary stories about the death of Hindi film actress Sridevi - something that has been a source of "mental torture" for news viewers. It has also researched into the amount of air time dedicated by these channels to the story, to roundly conclude that there has been an "excess of reportage" on the unfortunate event. — In Business Standard

Selfie Addict!

London: Junaid Ahmed, a 22-year-old man from Peterborough, UK, is obsessed with selfies. He can spend up to three hours getting himself ready for his daily photo-shoots, and claims to snap around 200 photos of himself, uploading the best of them to his Instagram page. An ex-fashion student and model, Junaid treats every day like a photo-shoot and even calls himself the 'selfie king'. To make sure he looks his best for his 50,000 Instagram followers. He spends hours in front of the mirror applying makeup. Over the years, he has also undergone several cosmetic procedures, including veneered teeth, chin fillers, botox under the eyes and on the head, tattooed eyebrows and fat freezing. "When I post a picture, in the first minute or two I'll probably get 100 likes and I love it, my phone goes crazy, it's just amazing," Junaid Ahmed recently told news channel, adding that it was his obsession with selfies and social media that inspired him to "upgrade" himself through plastic surgery.

This hotel responds to customers' unusual request!

Singapore: A couple visiting Singapore had a somewhat unusual request for the hotel they had booked their stay at – to have a photo of actor Jeff Goldblum placed next to their bed. I don't know how many hotels would take that sort of thing seriously, but the Mariott Tang Plaza, in Singapore, definitely does.

The hotel received the unusual request in an email confirming the couple's arrival, though the staff didn't use the specific image attached by the client, they made sure that the couple was satisfied when they entered their room. When the visitors finally arrived, they found not one but several photos of actor Jeff Goldblum, both in the room and in the bathroom. The couple were so impressed with the hotel's efforts to please them that they took photos of all the Goldblum's and shared their story on Reddit. "Our guests come from all over the world, and we will always do our best to accede to their requests, and to create brilliant and memorable experiences for our guests," the hotel's Director of operations, told the Singaporean newspaper.

Remembering a finest Kho-Kho player

Sir,

I was saddened to hear the news of Sanjay, one of the finest Kho-Kho players of mid-1990s, passing away at a young age of 40 (SOM dated Feb.27). During our student days in mid 1990s, sports events were regularly organised in some of the schools in Mysuru, especially in St. Joseph's, St. Philomena's, D. Banumaiah's and Mahajana High Schools.

Sanjay

Mahajana used to organise two-day sports events every year at its premises and Kho-Kho was one of the attractions. Students from nearby schools used to throng the place to witness the game. During this event, I came across this lad Sanjay representing St. Joseph's High School Kho-Kho team. If I am not wrong, he was the captain of St. Joseph's Kho-Kho team (1994-96). He was mercurial on the ground and used to play as a defender for full seven minutes of the game. He was also mightily good at chase. We, many of us, used to support St. Joseph's School Kho-Kho team just because of Sanjay's spirited play on the ground though we were part of Mahajana High School way back in 1994-1996.

I also happened to see him playing for Mysore University once or twice. He used to practice at the Oval Grounds and was unarguably one of the finest Kho-Kho players of that time. He was also good long distance runner. There were some news that he was selected to represent Karnataka in juniors and seniors at National-level.

When I recently came across the news that Mysore University, after three decades, emerged as the winner of All India Inter-University Kho-Kho Tournament, Sanjay's name flashed through my mind. May his soul rest in peace.

Dangerous hump on Hunsur Road

Sir,

I thank Ashvini Ranjan for highlighting in this column the dangerous hump on Hunsur Road near B.M. Hospital.

I was on my two-wheeler with my brother on the pillion, and were on the way to catch the early morning bus. I was in the belief that the road which was asphalted had smooth riding and no doubt riding the bike at 40-50 speed. If I had no control over the bike it would have been a fatal accident.

It is true that the department concerned had not displayed any signage to warn the riders and also for the four-wheelers cautioning the hump. It is a callous attitude of the officials, least bothered about the life of the people and putting the motorists in a dangerous situation.

I have a chance to become CM again if elected from Chamundeshwari: Siddu

CM Siddharamaiah inducting a few JD(S) leaders who joined Congress at the Chamundeshwari Constituency Congress Workers' convention held at Jayapura here yesterday as former ZP President K. Marigowda, Mavinahalli Siddegowda and others look on.

Mysuru, Mar.6 (SBD&DM)-Claiming that the country's political scenario will change if the Congress retains power in the State, Chief Minister Siddharamaiah on Monday, appealed the people to elect the Congress again in the forthcoming Assembly polls.

Addressing a party workers rally at Jayapura in the taluk which falls under Chamundeshwari constituency, Siddharamaiah who has declared that he would contest from the constituency, appealed the voters to ensure a thumping victory for him as he has the chance to become the CM again.

Asserting that the BJP and JD(S) would not come to power in the Assembly polls, he said that, JD(S) leader H.D.Kumarswamy's 'Kumaraparva Rally' and the BJP's 'Parivartana Rally' will have little impact on the electorate.

Terming the BJP as a communal party with no ideologies, he said that the Congress was an inclusive party working for the welfare of all sections of the society.

Accusing Chamundeshwari sitting JD(S) MLA G.T. Devegowda of doing little for the development of the constituency, the CM without naming GTD, said that the legislator was touring the constituency making false claim.

Declaring that this would be his last election and he had chosen Chamundeshwari segment which greatly helped him to climb the political ladder, Siddharamaiah reiterated his appeal to the voters to elect him, as he was indebted to the constituency.

Stating that he was the first Chief Minister after D. Devaraj Urs to complete a five-year term, he said that the many 'Bhagyas' such as Anna Bhagya, Ksheera Bhagya and Arogya Bhagya had largely benefited the economically weaker sections of the society.

Recalling his election from Chamundeshwari constituency in the bitterly fought by-election in 2006 when H.D. Kumarswamy was the CM, Siddharamaiah said that he knew the pulse of the people and he was sure of his victory in the forth coming elections.

Renewing his attack on the BJP, the CM accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi of making baseless corruption charges against the State Congress Government.

Listing out his Government's achievements over the past five years, he challenged PM Modi to prove the charges. The CM further said that he would quit politics if the charges were found to be true.

Rubbishing the Opposition claims that he (CM) had amassed illegal wealth, Siddharamaiah said he was ready for any probe.

Influential JD(S) leaders Mavinahalli Siddegowda, Bogadi Krishnamadegowda, Bogadi Kumar, Kamanakerahundi Vijendra and others joined the Congress on the occasion.

The CM welcomed them into the Congress fold by giving them the party flag.

Senior JD(S) leader Mavinahalli Siddegowda, a long time associate of the Chief Minister, who spoke after joining the Congress, said that he would stay with Siddharamaiah till his end.

Explaining the reasons for quitting the JD(S) to join the Congress party, Siddegowda said that the CM was his old friend and the two grew up together politically.

Stating that he had no ill will for JD(S) leaders, Siddegowda said that he had to leave the party because of the attitude of MLA G.T. Devegowda.

Asserting that he had joined the Congress only to ensure development of Chamundeshwari constituency, he said he was very much hopeful that the CM would address all issues related to the constituency.

Siddharamaiah will be taught a befitting lesson in polls: B.S. Yeddyurappa

Former Chief Minister and present BJP State President B.S. Yeddyurappa being felicitated with a Silver Mace by former MUDA Chairman K.R. Mohan Kumar, BJP Leader N.M. Naveen Kumar, Pailwan Krishna and Sunil on his arrival to city this morning as others look on.

Mysuru, Mar. 6 (RKB&DM)-Accusing Chief Minister Siddharamaiah of diving the society on caste and community lines, State BJP President and former CM B.S. Yeddyurappa has said that the Chief Minister would be taught a bitter lesson in the forthcoming Assembly polls.

Speaking to press persons after visiting Hosamutt in Agrahara here this morning, Yeddyurappa said that he had visited the Seer to seek his blessings.

Launching a scathing attack on CM Siddharamaiah, State BJP Chief Yeddyurappa accused the Chief Minister of cheating his political gurus such as former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda and kicking down the ladder which he had used to grow up politically.

Declaring that the BJP would field a strong candidate in Chamundeshwari segment to take on CM Siddharamaiah, the State BJP Chief said that his State-wide 'Parivartana Yatra' had received tremendous response from the people.

Yeddyurappa further said that during his yatra, he found that Veerashaiva-Lingayats stayed united.

BJP leaders Kautilya Raghu, H.V. Rajeev, K.P. Siddalingaswamy, L. Nagendra, K.R. Mohan Kumar, N.M. Naveen Kumar, Thontadarya, G. Madhusudhan and others were present.

Earlier, Yeddyurappa sought the blessings of Hosamutt Seer Chidananda Swamiji and the two had a closed-door meeting for over 15 minutes.

Kuderu Mutt Seer Gurushantha Swamiji was also present.

The meeting assumes significance in the wake of Chidananda Swamiji openly taking up the cause of a separate Lingayat religion tag by setting up a front for the same.

Earlier, a silver mace was presented to B.S. Yeddyurappa by former MUDA Chairman K.R. Mohan Kumar and BJP leader N.M. Naveen Kumar when Yeddyurappa arrived in city this morning.

Curtains drawn on Mysore Travel Mart-18

Wayanad District Collector S. Suhas being felicitated during the valedictory of Mysore Travel Mart-18 at the J.K. Grounds in city yesterday as MLA M.K. Somashekar, Mysore Travel Mart President C.A. Jayakumar, Mysuru Hotel Owners Association President C. Narayana Gowda, Secretary A. R. Ravindra Bhat, GSS Founder-President Srihari and others look on.

Mysuru, Mar.6 (SPN&NNN)- "There are lot of issues regarding the road connectivity between Wayanad and Mysuru Districts and if this is resolved then the tourism and resorts in both the States will be benefited," said Kerala's Wayanad District Collector S. Suhas.

He was speaking at the valedictory of the Mysore Travel Mart-18 organised by Mysore Travels Association, Mysuru Hotel Owners Association, Karnataka Tourism Department and Karnataka Tourism Forum, at the Platinum Jubilee Auditorium in J.K. Grounds, here yesterday.

Suhas said "Kerala Government is giving importance to tourism by using the available resources. Likewise, in Karnataka, a lot of importance is given to development of industries. However, in Kerala a 'District Tourism Council' has been set up under the respective District Collectors. Through this council, a lot of publicity is being made about Kerala's tourism, which in turn is helping its growth."

He said that there is a lot of scope to develop tourism in Mysuru District and a lot of importance has to be given for the development of important tourist places like the Mysore Palace and KRS. Similarly, efforts are on to chalk out plans for the development of Wayanad District and for this the co-operation of the Mysuru District Commissioner is very essential, he added.

Revealing that he hails from Mandya district and is related to Dr. Ramegowda, who was the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner in 2013, he said that if the resorts and hotels in both Mysuru and Wayanad develop, it would benefit both the districts.

Mysore Travels Association President B.S. Prashanth said that the tourists who visit Mysuru had also visited the Travel Mart. Apart from this both the hoteliers of Mysuru and Wayanad have joined hands for the development of both the districts and signed a few memorandums between them, he added.

Meeting at Bengaluru Aranya Bhavan today

Forest Minister B. Ramanath Rai is chairing a meeting today in Bengaluru in the presence of the officials of both the States to discuss the development of the National Highway connecting the Mysuru and Wayanad and other issues, said Wayanad District Collector S. Suhas.

There is a need for lot of publicity abroad to promote tourist places in both the districts which would create a lot of jobs locally, he said and added that pressure should be brought to remove obstacles for the movement of vehicles between the two States. Mysore Travels Association, Mysuru Hotel Owners Association and Karnataka Tourism Department should join hands for this development, he urged.

Prof. Nagesh Bettakote, who headed the Performing Arts Department of Bangalore University, had identified himself in the theatre and other fields of Art. He replaces Dr. Niranjan Vanalli, who has returned to his parent Communication and Journalism Department of Mysore University.

Govt. order to benefit

KSOU students of 2013-14 and 2014-15

Mysuru, Mar. 6 (US)- Bringing relief to a section of students of Karnataka State Open University (KSOU), the State Government is said to have issued an order to the University to issue certificates and marks cards to students who had enrolled during 2013-14 and 2014-15.

The Varsity had stopped admission of new students from 2015-16 after the UGC de-recognised the courses offered by KSOU on June 16, 2015. While doing so, UGC had stated that the courses were de-recognised with retrospective effect from 2013-14.

Last month, the High Court had recommended the State to validate the marks cards issued to students of non-technical courses for the year 2013-14 and 2014-15.

The UGC had de-recognised the courses stating that the Varsity had violated the territorial jurisdiction set by it. The government's decision is likely to benefit about 90,000 students who had enrolled during 2013-14 and 2014-15.

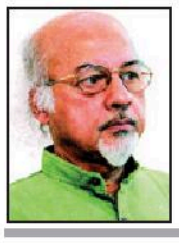
The Great Bank Robbery. By All



Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

The funny thing about the banking fraud that is rocking the country is that no one is accountable for it. The Finance Minister remained silent at first and then blamed the supervisory agencies — as though he was but an onlooker. His Cabinet colleague, the ever-unconvincing Ravishankar Prasad, blamed it on the Congress. He was no doubt seeing Indira Gandhi's bank nationalisation as the reason for the mess. Being a fair man, he didn't blame the Italian grain merchants who invented banking in the Middle Ages.

The problem with the Ravishankar Prasad brand of rodomontade is the self-conviction that they convince others. It is nobody's case that there was no corruption before his party's rise to power. Unforgettable scams marked the governments of all Congress Prime Ministers from Indira Gandhi's time. Manmohan Singh, personally respected for his incorruptibility, was Finance Minister in 1992 when Harshad Mehta triggered a Rs. 4,000-crore banking scam with an ingenious method of siphoning money from interbank transactions. As Prime Minister, Singh allowed some abominably corrupt Ministers to flourish under him.

So, do Congress scams justify BJP scams? Only the sick can argue along those lines. There is no way the Government of the day can dissociate itself from the Nirav Modi scandal. Official bank records of LOU (Letters of Understanding that facilitates loans from other banks) issued by Punjab National Bank to Nirav Modi have appeared in the media and they show that the letters were issued during 2017-18. Ravishankar Prasad's contention that the jeweller's appearance in a photograph with the Prime Minister in Davos was "a coincidence" also stands demolished. Protocol governs such occasions and nothing happens without prior clearance. No "coincidence" is permitted.

According to PTI, the national news agency, Finance Minister Arun Jaitley travelled to Davos with a "100-strong Indian delegation" of prominent businessmen. Among them was Nirav Modi. The attempt by apologists of the Government should be not to look at this banking scandal from a politically partisan viewpoint, but from the viewpoint of national interest. Whether under the Congress or the BJP, businessmen who cheat banks are cheating the citizens and the country. They should be handled from that defining angle.

Those who have eyes to see can see that scandals of this kind cannot happen without the knowledge and/or condonation and/or participation of politicians in power. Suspicions about the Modi style of operations had surfaced in the diamond business circles as far back as in 2015. A potential investor who had felt cheated had reported to the Police twice, then to the CBI. With neither taking any action, the investor alerted the PMO which forwarded the matter to the Registrar of Companies who chose to close the complaint. Could this happen without the involvement of well-placed politicians and officials?

Vijay Mallya

Lalit Modi

Nirav Modi

Equally relevant is the question: Could Modi have escaped from India in the nick of time without official collusion?

In the immediate family he is the only one with an Indian passport. His sixth sense stirred when two senior staffers of the PNB who had the power to issue LOUs left India in November last year. In a measured manner thereafter he, business partner/uncle Mehul Choksi and some family members quietly and separately took flights out of the country. All that India could do was seize their assets within its borders and send look-out notices. Big deal.

What we see here is the old story of VIP offenders being helped by our law enforcers to escape from the law of the land. When the Bhopal gas tragedy, described as the world's worst industrial disaster, killed 4,000 to 8000 and maimed countless others in 1984, senior Ministers in Delhi helped Union Carbide Chief Anderson escape from India. Ottavio Quattrocchi, Italian business agent who became so close to Sonia Gandhi's family that his four children, all born in India, and Sonia's children grew up together, finally fell foul of the law in 1993 but was helped to escape from the country overnight so to speak. And then we have our modern touch-me-not VIPs, Lalit Modi and Vijay Mallya living in luxury abroad beyond the reach of India's reluctant hands.

Nirav Modi has politely declined to co-operate with the CBI in its inquiries against him. Why not? Is Vijay Mallya co-operating with the CBI? Has anyone in our great country dared touch Lalit Modi? His pals are in high office in Rajasthan and Delhi. This is India that is Bharat — and this is how it will be irrespective of which party is in power.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, who unveiled Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa statue at Ramakrishnanagar Circle in city yesterday, is seen with MLAs M.K. Somashekar and G.T. Devegowda, MUDA Chairman D. Dhruvakumar, Swami Athmajnanandaji of Sri Ramakrishna Ashrama-Mysuru, District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and others.

Mysuru, Mar.6 (YDS&DM)-Chief Minister Siddharamaiah unveiled Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa statue at a Circle in Ramakrishnanagar yesterday. The statue and the Circle has been developed at a cost of Rs.5 crore. Speaking on the occasion, Siddharamaiah said that Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa's statue has been installed at a public place for the first time in the country.

Pointing out that Paramahamsa, who was born in West Bengal, practised spiritualism throughout his life, the CM said that Paramahamsa was prominent among those who rejuvenated Hindu religion.

Noting that India is a multi-cultural country, home to many religions such as Hindu, Christian, Jain, Sikh, Islam etc., the CM said that the country should live in peace and harmony as advocated by great leaders and spiritual gurus.

Observing that Kuvempu drew great inspiration from Ramakrishna Paramahamsa, the CM said that like Kuvempu, everyone should draw inspiration from the great spiritual leader.

Maintaining that his government was committed to conserving heritage structures, he said that MUDA has built the circle and the statue at a cost of Rs.5 crore.

Stating that this was the first public place where Ramakrishna Paramahamsa's statue has been installed, Siddharamaiah said that Dharma should not be defined by one according to his/her's fancy and it was important to follow Paramahamsa's preachings.

Claiming that he batted for Paramahamsa's statue at the Circle, while some were for installation of Kanakadasa statue, the CM complimented MUDA Chairman and Commissioner and the local MLA who strived for the installation of the statue.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, Mysuru Ramakrishna Ashrama's Athmajnanandaji, Mangaluru Ramakrishna Mutt's Jitakamanandaji, MLAs G.T. Devegowda, M.K. Somashekar and Vasu, MUDA Chairman D. Dhruvakumar, Mayor B. Bhagyavathi, ZAK Chairperson Mallige Veeresh, MLC R. Dharmasena and others were present.

Dr. Kadri Gopalnath is seen presenting a Saxophone recital during the inauguration of Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa statue at Ramakrishnanagar Circle in city last evening.

Railways cite safety issue; refuses to clear public road

Mysuru, Mar.6 (BCT)- The Railways have clarified that there is no blockage of the two-furlong road at Bannimantap that connects Hazrath Gumnam Shahwali Dargah Road and Ring Road.

Reacting to the news item published in Star of Mysore dated Mar.4 'Truckers demand Railways to clear public road,' Railway Senior Divisional Commercial Manager and Public Relation Officer has stated that the road has not been blocked.

"This clarification is regarding opening of Railway land for road traffic. There is no such blockage of road by Railways as mentioned in the news item and there is no road in the stretch as claimed," he has stated.

"Mysuru New Goods Terminal (MNGT) is the centre of all goods activities catering to the needs of freight traffic destined to in and around Mysuru area. The new road way which is being sought cannot be made as it will come close to permanent way (track) and trespass cannot be permitted near the track, that too heavy movement of trucks which is a safety issue. The present road arrangement is functioning smoothly from goods shed area side. Hence in view of safety, the new road cannot be made," the officer has stated.

On Mar.4, a group of truckers led by Railway Goods Shed Lorry Owners' Association staged a protest near Srinivasa Talkies at Bannimantap demanding the Railways to open the Hazrath Gumnam Shahwali Dargah Road for truck traffic.

The road provides a direct connection between Railway Goods Shed and the Ring Road. As the road is blocked, trucks are using the Jodi Thenginamara Road, leading to frequent road blocks and accidents on that stretch due to the constant movement of heavy vehicles and other small vehicles.

The two-furlong road at Bannimantap that connects Hazrath Gumnam Shahwali Dargah Road and Ring Road, which has been blocked using heaps of mud (circled in red).

Reacting to SOM about the Railway clarification, Abdul Khader Shahid, Secretary of the Railway Goods Shed Lorry Owners' Association, said that the clarification was misleading. "We are not asking for a new road but the opening of an old road that has been blocked by the Railways claiming it as their own and by dumping mud and construction debris," he said.

"The Hazrath Gumnam Shahwali Dargah Road was developed with a cost of Rs.16 crore due to the efforts of Minister Tanveer Sait. The road was developed and a new bridge has been constructed for connectivity exclusively for the movement of trucks. A mountain near the Dargah was also partly cleared to facilitate the road construction. Despite all these efforts, the Railways have not budged and have refused to clear the road," he said.

"Let the Railways verify before making blind claims. We unload food grains and other materials supplied by the government. We are doing government's work here and we are not able to understand why the Railways are doing this to us," Abdul added.

When asked about their next move, Abdul said that the Railways must provide a solution. "It is a public facility and if the Railways open the road, the pressure on Jodi Thenginamara Road will be eased. They must conduct an inspection of the Dargah Road and take into account the public benefits before denying the public facility," he said and added that it was up to the Railways to solve the deadlock.

Night traffic ban to Kerala via Bandipur

Karnataka, Kerala forest officers meet in Bengaluru

Bengaluru, Mar. 6 (MTY&BCT)- Senior Forest Department officers from Kerala are meeting their counterparts in Bengaluru today to discuss the opening of night traffic from Mysuru to Kerala via Bandipur. They are also discussing the proposal to construct an underground tunnel on the stretch to facilitate the movement of traffic. The meeting began at 11.30 am at Aranya Bhavan and PCCF Punati Sridhar, Project Tiger Director Manoj Kumar and Bandipur Tiger Reserve Director Ambadi Madhav and APCCF Ajay Mishra are representing Karnataka. The names of the Forest officers from Kerala, are, however, not available.

It may be mentioned here that the Centre, in the Supreme Court, has submitted that an underground tunnel will be constructed to connect Mysuru and Kerala via the Bandipur Tiger Reserve. The submission was made some days ago by the Attorney General. Since 2009, Kerala has been demanding Karnataka to lift the night ban imposed on the entry and exit of vehicles via the Tiger Reserve from 9 pm to 6 am. In view of the night traffic ban, the Centre has decided to find an alternative and has decided on the tunnel that will connect Karnataka and Kerala without disturbing the flora and fauna.

Hearing the Attorney General's submission, the Supreme Court asked him to direct the Centre to constitute the technical committee within four weeks and ask it to submit its report by the end of July this year.

Today's meeting in Bengaluru discussed the possibility of opening the road and also constructing a tunnel. The Kerala officers were told that the National Tiger Conservation Authority had opposed both the proposals.

Proposals of the Kerala government were placed before the meeting. They include the relaxation of the timings of the night ban on vehicles; or, at the least, an increase in the number of buses allowed during the time (Currently, 16 are allowed from Karnataka to Kerala and Tamil Nadu, and vice-versa); and to allow a convoy system that would see vehicles being allowed into the Tiger Reserve at pre-determined times.

Forest officers from Karnataka told the meeting that road kills have come down drastically after the night traffic ban was enforced.

Hinkal villagers stage protest

The protest was jointly organised by Hinkal's Sri Nanneshwara Temple Development Committee, Zilla Panchayat and Taluk Panchayat members, Auto Drivers Association, Lorry Owners Association and a few other organisations. The protest began around 10.30 am when nearly 300 people blocked the traffic at the Hinkal Ring Road junction. Later, the traffic was cleared by the police.

Meanwhile, MUDA Chairman D. Dhruvakumar, Commissioner T.S. Kantharaj and other officials reached the spot and moved towards the Kalyani (water pond) where the meeting was held.

The villagers alleged that despite their best efforts to save the pond and the land around near the temple, MUDA was ignoring them and allowing the two private institutions to go ahead with the construction.

BACKGROUND

The historical Nanneshwara Temple of the village originally had an area of 42 acres, out of which only about 3 acres is now remaining with the temple. The MUDA after acquiring a portion of this land, sanctioned it to an educational institution. The land sanctioned by MUDA included centuries old Kalyani measuring 100ft x 100ft.

The Kalyani had shrunk to a large extent as time went by, with mud and shrubs covering more than half of the pond, posing a threat to the very existence of the Kalyani. The villagers drew the attention of the people representatives about the status of the pond. But the people's representatives, including the MLA, MP and other local leaders, did not pay much attention to saving the Kalyani then.

The Yuva Brigade, along with Hinkal villagers, taking keen interest in saving the pond, visited almost every household in the village seeking co-operation.

"The Minister revealed that an MP has raised a question in the Parliament about when Thalassery-Mysuru Railway Line will be implemented. He told us that he (Piyush Goyal) would reply to the MP tomorrow that the Centre would not take up the environmentally destructive project," Thamoo said.

Further, he said that Union Minister H.N. Ananth Kumar had helped the delegation to meet the Railway Minister. "We met Ananth Kumar at 2.30 pm yesterday and he took us to the Railway Minister at 4 pm. Piyush Goyal was very clear in his approach and told us that the lobby was working to get the project implemented since 1962 under all Railway Ministers," he said.

Ananth Kumar told us that the Railway Ministry has prepared a detailed reply to the question that has been raised by the MP. "We have even met the Railway Board Chairman Ashwani Lohani and he has said that he will follow the directions of the Minister," he added.

Praveen Bhargav and H.N.A. Prasad of Wildlife First also were part of the delegation.

Meetings held across nation to pay tributes to Manikandan

Prime Minister, President too tweet

Mysuru, Mar.6 (MTY&US)- Tributes were paid to Conservator of Forests (CF) S. Manikandan at meetings held at Forest Department Offices across the country yesterday.

Manikandan was trampled to death by a wild elephant recently in Nagarahole Forest Range where he, along with other officers and staff of the Department, had gone to assess the damage caused by forest fire.

President, Prime Minister, Chief Minister of various States and senior officers of Forest Department across the nation had tweeted paying rich tributes to the honest and efficient Forest Officer who was killed under tragic circumstances.

A meeting was held at Aranya Bhavan in Ashokapuram here yesterday to pay homage to Manikandan. APCCF Jagathram, CCF Karunakar, DCFs V. Yedukondalu, Hanumanthappa and ACF Prakash, along with other Forest officials of Mysuru Division, attended the meeting and paid tributes to Manikandan.

Similar meetings were held at Bengaluru Aranya Bhavan, Bandipur, Bhadra Tiger Reserve Area and at district and taluk levels.

A two-minute silence was observed by Forest Officials in Sikkim and Union Forest Minister Harshavardhan addressed a homage meeting in Delhi.

Meet on Scientific Advancements for Sustainable Development

Mysuru, Mar.6 (KS)- A two-day conference on 'Scientific Advancements for Sustainable Development' was organised by the Department of Biotechnology, Biochemistry and Microbiology of MMK-SDM Mahila Maha Vidyalaya, Mysuru, in association with Global Association of Scientific Young Minds (GASYM) at its premises here recently.

The conference was inaugurated by Dr. Madan Thangavelu, Principal Consultant and Trustee, Research Council for Complementary Medicine, University of Cambridge, UK.

In his address, he highlighted the interdisciplinary aspects of all branches of science and its wide application to various necessities of human life and deliberated the need to consult India's ancient scripts for scientific knowledge.

Dr. H.S. Prakash, Professor, DoS in Biotechnology, University of Mysore (UoM), received the GASYM Honorary President's Award on the occasion.

In his speech, he observed the new areas of science being introduced to the system due to the interdisciplinary link of the subjects and cautioned a consequent redundancy if specialised areas were prioritised over the basic foundations and principles of science. He said that the higher education system plays a vital role to nurture young minds for a sustainable developed life.

Over 200 delegates comprising faculties from various institutions, research scholars and PG students from across the country participated in the conference which witnessed a series of dynamic talks from renowned scientists from IISc, CFTRI and UoM.

The second day of the conference concluded with the valedictory function wherein Prof. Uliyar V. Mani, Professor Emeritus, DoS in Food Science and Nutrition, UoM, delivered the valedictory address. Dr. B.N. Raveesh, HoD of Psychiatry, Mysore Medical College, advised the gathering to be wise using scientific knowledge. Prof. Sainath Malligemadu, Principal, MMK&SDM Mahila Maha Vidyalaya, Mysuru, presided over the event.

Federer stays atop ATP Rankings

Simona Halep leads Women's List

London, Mar.6- Switzerland legend Roger Federer remained at the number one spot with 10,060 points, exactly 600 points ahead of World No.2 Rafael Nadal of Spain, in the men's Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) world singles rankings released yesterday while Simona Halep led the women's ranking chart.

Last month, the 20-time Grand Slam champion reclaimed the top spot for the first time since October 29, 2012 when he overtook Nadal, following his victory at the Rotterdam Open. The top two players were still far above the competition, as World No.3 Marin Cilic of Croatia was nearly 4,600 points behind Nadal, narrowly ahead of Bulgaria's Grigor Dimitrov and Germany's Alexander Zverev.

Outside the top ten, Spain's Roberto Bautista Agut moved up seven spots to 16th after winning his first Dubai Championships title on Saturday, his second title this season.

Halep leads women's list: Halep continued to lead the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) rankings released for the second consecutive week, ahead of Denmark's Caroline Wozniacki.

Wozniacki, who maintained the first position for four weeks following her victory at the Australian Open, exchanged places with Halep on Feb.26, after losing points due to her defeat by Czech Petra Kvitova in the Qatar Open semi-final.

Meanwhile, all top 10 players maintained their positions without any changes.

Create job openings for disabled: Mphasis VP

Mysuru, Mar.6 (NNN)- Even if you have one person with disability you have to provide with right support system; if you are not doing you so are discriminating the disability, said Dr. Meenu Bhambhani, Vice-President and Head-CSR, Mphasis,

She was speaking during special interactive session on "Employing and Engaging Persons with disabilities," organised by CII Mysuru at a hotel here recently and said: "It's not about numbers, it's about equal opportunity. Start providing facility in the initial stage of employment of a disability person."

CSR provides us canvas and freedom to experiment to look at innovate solutions and challenges disabled face. Regarding job opportunities for disabled people, apart from Mphasis where five percent of the total 27,000 workers are disabled, in most of the companies we can see hardly one or two percent disable people working, she said.

Modified vehicles for disabled: After lot of hardwork we managed to get modified vehicles through Uber called 'Uber Axis' which will be launched in March. Earlier it was Uber who provided pick up drop facility for disabled through its trained drivers. The facilities including transportation which were meant for disabled are also being used by oldage people, said Meenu.

CII Mysuru Chairman Arjun Ranga said, "In India, nearly 27 million people are living with disability with only 25 percent in employment and persons with disabilities represent the single largest minority group seeking employment. Therefore at CII Mysuru, we are serious about empowerment of persons with disabilities as we have highly-qualified talent. Hence, we from industry have to play critical role in realising the objectives of creating inclusive workplaces."

Event Coordinator and Student of MYRA School of Business Bala Tripura Sundari, in her welcome address, said that the objective of the session was to bring in a positive perspective among the industry participants to engage and hire persons with disabilities into the workforce.

N.E. Sridhar, Head-CSR. Titan Industries Limited and Samrudhi Sridharan, Senior Specialist at EnAble India, shared their experience during the session.

More than 3,500 candidates gain employment at Udyoga Mela

MLAs Vasu and M.K. Somashekar are seen issuing appointment letters to selected candidates at the Udyoga and Skill Mela held at the Maharaja's College Grounds in city yesterday as Karnataka Skill Development Corporation Chairman Muralidhar Halappa, DC D. Randeep and others look on.

Mysuru, Mar.6 (PM&NNN)- "The youth need not get disheartened if they did not get jobs in the Udyoga Mela. If they register in 'Kaushalya Karnataka' web portal www.kaushalkar.com then they will get an opportunity to train in some of the best Multinational Companies (MNCs)," said Karnataka Skill Development Corporation Chairman Muralidhar Halappa.

He was speaking after distributing appointment letters to a few people, who were selected by various companies, at the valedictory of the three-day Divisional-level Udyoga and Skill Mela at the Maharaja's College Grounds, here yesterday.

"Through the Corporation, 22 Udyoga Melas, have been successfully organised in different parts of the State. The aim of Siddharamaiah's Government is to empower the youth," he said.

Once they enrol under the State Government's Kaushalya Karnataka Mission Training scheme, they will be imparted training in multinational companies.

With such training the youth can even start their own companies or get jobs, he added.

Already 7.62 lakh candidates in the State have registered in the Kaushalya Karnataka web portal. In Mysuru region more than one lakh have registered. The responsibility of this mission was given to Subashchandra Kuntia when he was the Chief Secretary and six consultants post had been created, Halappa said.

MLA Somashekar said that the youth who do not get jobs must not feel betrayed. If one continues to do hard work and has an aim in life then they are bound to succeed. Many of the great leaders in the past have always said that if one has to progress in life then he alone must do the hard work.

More than 90 per cent of unnecessary thoughts cross one's mind. Hence, one should have control over such thoughts and only concentrate on the ones useful to a person, and then one can achieve something in life, he said.

In the Mela, more than 3,500 people have been successful in gaining employment. A few more have been selected, besides 3,000 to 4,000 being short-listed. In the coming days the interviews will be arranged in the companies itself and selected, he said.

MLA Vasu, Deputy Commissioner (DC) D. Randeep, Mysuru Industries Association Vice President Umesh K. Shenoy, Secretary Suresh Kumar Jain and chiefs of various companies were present.

14,045 candidates register

A total of 14,045 candidates had registered for the three-day Udyoga and Skill Development Mela. On the first day (Mar.3) even though 10,611 candidates had registered, it was not applicable as it was meant only for skill development training.

On the second day (Mar.4) 11,534 had registered out of which 3,529 were short-listed or selected and 745 put on hold.

On the final day (Mar.5) 2,511 candidates had registered out of which, 1,068 were short-listed or selected and 181 jobs were on hold.

In all 4,597 were selected or short-listed and 926 jobs put on hold, according to the Udyoga Mela statistics.

Rider killed as goods vehicle rams into bike

Nageshwar Murthy

Mysuru, Mar. 6 (SPN&KS)- A bike rider, who was proceeding on the Ring Road was knocked down fatally near Vijayanagar here yesterday.

The deceased has been identified as M.J. Nageshwar Murthy (37), a resident of Siddarthanagar, who used to deliver online products to customers.

Yesterday afternoon, Nageshwar was proceeding on the Ring Road to Vijayanagar to deliver a product booked by a customer. When he took a turn towards Vijayanagar from Hinkal side, a speeding Eicher goods vehicle knocked him down from behind resulting in Nageshwar sustaining serious injuries. The driver of the goods vehicle with the help of the public, rushed Nageshwar to a private hospital in Hootagalli, where the doctors provided first aid and advised the goods vehicle driver to shift Nageshwar to JSS Hospital for further treatment. Though he was shifted to JSS Hospital, Nageshwar succumbed to injuries in the evening.

V.V. Puram Traffic Inspector Ravi and staff visited the accident spot, conducted inspection, took the goods vehicle and the driver into custody besides registering a case.

Nageshwar leaves behind his parents, brother, sister and a host of relatives and friends. Last rites were held at the Veerashaiva-Lingayat Burial Grounds at Lalithadripura here this noon, according to family sources.

Alleged assault and abusing woman

Case registered against Congress leader T.S. Ravishankar and four others

Mysuru, Mar. 6 (RK&KS)- A woman, alleging abuse and assault on her, has lodged a complaint against former City Congress President T.S. Ravishankar and four others at K.R. Police Station on Mar. 4.

While the woman complainant has been identified as Nirmala Ramesh, President of Mooguru Karnataka Brahmin Association, the other persons against whom she has lodged a complaint have been identified as K. Manjunath Prasad, M.R. Chandrashekar, Jagadish and Shankar.

In her complaint, Nirmala has stated that on Mar. 4, she was chairing an informal meeting of the association with the Directors, when T.S. Ravishankar along with K. Manjunath Prasad, M.R. Chandrashekar, Jagadish and Shankar barged into the meeting hall at about 6.30 pm.

Ravishankar claiming that he was the President of the association, verbally abused her for conducting the meeting besides assaulting her.

K.R. Police have registered a case under IPC Section 143, 323, 504 read with 149 (Complaint No. 0033/2018) and ASI D.B. Suresh is investigating.

Kheny's induction into Congress comes under attack from Opposition parties

Ashok Kheny

Bengaluru, Mar.6 - The ruling Congress has come under severe attack by the Opposition BJP and JD(S) for inducting Bidar (South) Independent MLA Ashok Kheny in to the party. Kheny is also the Chairman of NICE (Nandi Infrastructure Corridor Enterprise) .

Kheny's induction comes less than a month after the party embraced BJP leader Anand Singh, who is an accused in the illegal mining scam, which has given the Opposition new stick to beat the Congress with.

BJP Spokesperson Suresh Kumar said the Congress has shown its true colours by taking in Kheny, even as a Joint Legislature Committee headed by Law Minster T.B. Jayachandra, in its report, highlighted the illegalities of Kheny's NICE Company. Maintaining that the Congress is no longer a party that fought for India's independence, but one that shields the corrupt, Suresh Kumar said the BJP will include Kheny's induction into the Congress as an issue in its ongoing 'Bengaluru Rakshisi' Campaign.

Former Deputy CM and BJP MLA R. Ashoka quipped that the Congress roped Kheny as it needed money for the upcoming elections. JD(S) State President and former CM H.D Kumaraswamy, accusing Kheny of looting the State said that Chief Minster Siddharamaiah had set a bad precedent by inducting the 'tainted' businessman. The Aam Admi Party (AAP) also took potshots at the Congress over the induction of Kheny.

Actor Upendra to float new party

Upendra

Bengaluru, Mar.6-Actor Upendra, who heads KPJP (Karnataka Prajnavanthara Janata Paksha), a party that was founded by one Mahesh Gowda during the 2015 BBMP elections, quit the party today, amidst internal bickering in the fledgling party.

Declaring that he has quit the party, after meeting the party leaders at a resort on the outskirts of the State Capital this morning, Upendra, while categorically ruling out joining any other party, said that he will be floating his own party to be named as 'Prajakeeya Party.' He said that he would complete the formalities of floating the party after consulting his lawyers and added that his new party would take up the cause of people.

WORD OF THE DAY

Elucidate

Pronunciation: Ih-LOO-suh-dayt (verb).

Meaning: To make lucid especially by explanation or analysis.

Origin: To elucidate is to make something clear that was formerly murky or confusing — and it is perfectly clear how the modern term got that meaning. Elucidate traces to the Latin term lucidus, which means "lucid." Lucidus, in turn, descends from the verb lucēre, meaning "to shine." So elucidating can be thought of as the figurative equivalent of shining a light on something to make it easier to see. Lucēre has also produced other shining offspring in English. Among its descendants are lucid itself (which can mean "shining," "clear-headed," or "easily understood"), lucent (meaning "giving off light" or "easily seen through"), and translucent (meaning "partly transparent" or "clear enough for light to pass through"). Example: "In 'Darwin and the Meaning of Flowers' Sacks recounts how, late in his life and in poor health, Darwin turned his attention from animals to plants, continuing to elucidate his theory of evolution when he could no longer undertake voyages." —Suzanne Koven, The Boston Globe, 26 Nov. 2017.

THE ODD WORD

Snollygoster

A shrewd person not guided by principles. (esp. a politician.)

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A stitch in time saves nine

Meaning: A timely effort will prevent more work later.

Origin: This is nothing to do with rips in the fabric of the space-time continuum, as some have ingeniously suggested. The 'stitch in time' is simply the prompt sewing up of a small hole or tear in a piece of material, so saving the need for more stitching at a later date when the hole has become larger. Clearly the first users of this expression were referring to saving nine stitches. This proverbial expression was obviously meant as an incentive to the lazy. It's especially gratifying that 'a stitch in time saves nine' is an anagram for 'this is meant as incentive'!

The Anglo Saxon work ethic is being called on here. Many English proverbs encourage immediate effort as superior to putting things off until later; for example, 'one year's seeds, seven year's weeds', 'procrastination is the thief of time' and 'the early bird catches the worm.'

The 'stitch in time' notion has been current in English for a very long time and is first recorded in Thomas Fuller's Gnomologia, Adagies and Proverbs, Wise Sentences and Witty Sayings, Ancient and Modern, Foreign and British, 1732: "A Stitch in Time May save nine."

It's blooming time...

Yellow Tabebuia is in full bloom at the Mysore Palace, adding a dash of golden sheen to the golden dome of the Amba Vilas Palace. Tabebuia is a genus of flowering plants in the family Bignoniaceae. The common name "roble" is sometimes found in English. Tabebuias have been called "trumpet trees" but this name is usually applied to other trees and has become a source of confusion and misidentification. Tabebuia consists almost entirely of trees, but a few are often large shrubs. A few species produce timber, but the genus is mostly known for those that are cultivated as flowering trees. Tabebuia is native to the American tropics and subtropics from Mexico and the Caribbean to Argentina. Most of the species are from Cuba and Hispaniola. This flowering plant is found in many parts of city.
